Analysis on feedback of students on syllabus

Though the overall report of the feedback process of the students, on syllabus, is not so negative, yet some particular questions have made the authority bound to think of the problems faced by students. Ledo college is always concerned and serious of any negative feedback given by students and is always tries to solve the issues as soon as possible. Having been considering the issue, a meeting was conducted by the authority of the college and necessary action were taken such as giving notice to the students to encourage them to express their views on curriculum and its implementation. Moreover it has been decided to raise the issue in university meeting regarding the negative feedback of students on curriculum construction and its impacts.
